“Need” Has Many Faces and at WMFC

Help Comes From Many Places

“Need” has many faces....

The little boy who arrives at the Center on a warm summer day anxious to start summer camp and yet his stomach is growling because his mother couldn't afford breakfast...

The father who struggles to let go of his pride as he walks into the Center to ask for help with paying his heating bill because his family is facing a shut off notice...

The mother in a panic on Tuesday morning trying to figure out how to stretch her last couple of dollars to buy gas to get to work for the rest of week.

“Need” knows no season...it is year round... and there are many ways that you can help. WMFC accepts financial contributions so that we can help families in crisis. WMFC also has a FREE clothing room and a FREE food pantry that are always in need of donations. For more information on how you can help, please call Renee Young at 989-832-3256 or visit www.wmfc.org.
